The Role:

Based in our studio in Shoreditch, London, you will collaborate with our multinational team and create outstanding digital productions for our international Advertising Agency client base. You will provide design leadership and art direction to junior designers.

You may also be required to represent unit9 and travel as needed to clients, industry events and our studios in Florence and Stockholm.

You:

- Have a strong design background and 4+ years experience creating original, innovative and strategically sound web based solutions for clients and brands.
- Love interface and information design.
- Have a passion for Typography and layout.
- Have a portfolio of projects that you are justifiably proud of.
- Have expert knowledge of web design/production software Adobe CS.
- Care passionately about the creative success of projects.
- Have experience working in a team of people from different disciplines.
- Enjoy working with people from many different nationalities.
- Are aware of current Internet trends and phenomena and how they can best be applied to design solutions.
- Have a strong work ethic.
- May have already picked up a few awards...

Requirements for application:

This is a permanent role, salary dependent on experience. Please send your CV, a link to your portfolio and salary expectations to jobs@unit9.com - NO Agencies Please.
